MRS. H. E. SEARLES.

ERROR TRUE NORTHERNER.

I find in your issue of the 6th, the following: "J. J. Woodman, the Boss Granger, buys his harnesses of Cook, at the old stand." That is a little cheeky, brother Cook. J. J. Woodman did buy a harness of Forsyth & Cook, and not of W. E. Cook, long before the harness shop was opened at the Grange Store, and says he got a very good harness, but no better than can now be bought for a good deal less money at the Grange Store.

It will pay any one desiring such property, to give me a call on premises, or enquire of C. R. Cook in village.

GEO. S. COOK, Paw Paw, Mich.

MINNEAPOLIS HARVESTER & TWINE BINDER.

DEALER, July 28, 1882.

A. E. ROBERTS, GENT. Agent.

DEAR SIR—I am very much pleased with the Minneapolis Harvester and Binder I purchased of you at our last spring's Fair held at Lansing. I believed yours to be the best, and it has proved itself to perfection, in lightness of draft, ease of management, and simplicity of parts, cutting, elevating, and binding the worst tangled grain I ever saw growing. I cut 22 acres in 12 hours on the last day of my wheat harvest, not missing a bundle. Yours truly,

JAMES GOODSELL.

For sale by O. H. P. SHELTON & Co., Paw Paw, Mich.

Local Department.

Our circuit court convened Monday.

Clover seed is selling for $8.50 per bushel.

C. H. Mosier, Esq., is home on a short vacation.

We have been having some magnificent weather.

Sherwood has probably defeated O'Brien by a small plurality.

Those were fine parsneps that Late Rogers left in our office the other day.

The churches of this village will hold their Sunday services hereafter at 7:30.

Read Conner & Wood's new advertisement. They do business on business principles.

More than 100 teachers failed on the state Sup't's questions, both in Cass and Kal. Co's.

Mrs. Searls has opened a new fancy goods and millinery store in the post office block.

Isn't it about time for some one to trot out a brag spring Duke, Wilkes, or Hesing colt?

A brother of Dr. C. M. Odell, from northern Michigan, is visiting the Dr. and his family.

The Northerner has facilities for job printing which are second to no office in the county.

If any one wants to see a fine litter of Poland China pigs, let him call on the subscriber.

Wm. Hazard, Esq. of Hamlin, Monroe county, New York, has been visiting his niece, Mrs. O. W. Rowland.

Our school commenced on Monday. Mrs. Hecker now occupies the position so long and so well filled by Miss Thompson.

Married—on the 10th inst., by the Rev. G. L. Cole, Mr. George Bolden, of Mattawan, to Mrs. Emma Carlisle, of the same place.

The jury returned a verdict of $20,000 against the Evening News in the Maclean-Scripps libel case. A righteous judgment!

H. C. Van Slyke has rented his farm to Josiah Kingsbury and will sell his personal property at auction on Wednesday April 18.

Miss Allie Hart, who has been spending a few weeks with Miss Clara Sheldon, returned to her home in Owosso, Monday last.

It was all right, but, nevertheless, it looked suspicious to see an auctioneer and lady crawling into the back window of a deserted building.

Broughton has his photograph in this paper. He did not state whether it was taken at Prater's or Hodges'. It is a good likeness.

Jimmy Waters has a new girl at his house. He says he is going to move to the farm in order to have more room for his rapidly increasing family.

Van Aken procured a steam engine to come and saw the court house wood. He means to keep the sheriff and his fellow prisoners warm next winter.

We were glad to see our friend, Dr. C. M. Odell, on the streets last Monday. He has been confined to his house for a long time, but is now improving slowly.

Van must have been excited, a little off, or something, when he stuck his elbow through that show-case at D. S. & Co.'s. He can charge it up to the county.

We should have said, last week, that Mr. Buck, not Mr. Gregory, was elected Supervisor from Keeler. We beg Mr. G's pardon: he does not train with the fusionists.

On the 4th of April Mr. B. J. Massey, formerly of Deatur, now of Grand Rapids, became the proud father of a fine boy, weighing eight and three-fourths pounds.

A. F. Hayes, ex-foreman of the Northerner, has gone to Janesville. He is going to "run with the show," Col. Burr Robins, commander-in-chief. Success to you, Planky.

Our other typo, of the blonde mustache, had an attack of the western fever, packed up his little grip-bag and started for Mandan, Dakota. We hope he may strike a bonanza.

During the heavy wind last Tuesday night, Dr. Hendrick's sign was blown down, and in its fall it came in contact with Longwell's plate glass window, smashing a large pane of glass, worth about a $50 bill.

The Evening News, judging from its editorials on the Mclean-Scripps libel suit, evidently regards the publication of vile and indecent charges, against prominent citizens, as a sine qua non of journalism.

In the last number of the Song Friend, published by S. W. Straub, of Chicago, is a very fine Thanksgiving anthem, by our townsman, C. E. Hutchins. The Song Friend is a monthly treat to lovers of music.

The "red house" which has been a prominent landmark on the old Lawton road for many years, has been pulled down, and a new one erected by E. V. Neveu, the recent purchaser of the farm on which it stood.

Miss Shedd has opened her second term of dancing school in this village. She has schools each Tuesday and Friday evening, closing at 9 o'clock, after which any parties who desire, can dance until twelve, by paying 40 cents a couple.

Don't let it be said after this, that Paw Paw will not patronize a first-class entertainment. At Remenyi's concert the Opera House was crowded above and below. Remenyi's playing was superb and was applauded again and again. There are few men in the world who can equal him, on the violin.

The re-opening of the First Baptist church will take place on Sunday, April 15th. Services morning and evening. Dr. S. Graves, of Grand Rapids, and Dr. Brooks or Dr. Sawtelle, of Kalamazoo, will preach. The other churches give up their services morning and evening, and a grand time is expected.

A very pleasant party assembled at the residence of J. L. Terrill, last Tuesday evening. It was a surprise, gotten up in honor of Mr. T's 42nd birthday. His friends presented him with an elegant easy chair in which to rest his weary limbs. The presentation speech was made by O. W. Rowland. Lymne was equal to the occasion, although it was a "nipper" for him.

We call attention to an article on "sheep raising," prepared by Ed. Welen, published in this issue of our paper. Mr. W. is well posted on the subject concerning which he writes, and his ideas will be of interest to any who are engaged in that industry. The article was read by its author before the Sheep Breeders' Association of Kalamazoo, and Van Buren counties.

On Tuesday last, Prof. Cupples received a telegram that his wife's sister was dead, and he went to attend the funeral. We understand that the deceased, who was a young school girl, contracted a cold while practicing in a cold room, for a school exhibition, which resulted in her death. Teachers cannot be too careful of the health of the children committed to their charge.

At the regular meeting of the Paw Paw Fire Department held on Thursday evening of last week, Walter Durkee, foreman of the hose company, and O. W. Rowland, assistant foreman of the engine company, were elected as delegates to the State Fireman's Association, to be held at St. Louis, Mich., on Wednesday, May 2nd, 1883. Chief Engineer A. W. Showerman and one member of the fire board, are also delegates, ex-officio.

Another well known resident of our county has departed for the land of the setting sun. Geo. Rowe, of Bangor, left for Minnesota recently, with an outfit which shows that he means business. It consisted of timber, ready framed for a house and barn, all necessary farm machinery, eight horses, one carpenter, and a man and his wife who will attend to the farm which he purchased while there before. George makes this new departure in hopes of gaining health as well as wealth, and we heartily wish him success.

On Monday evening, April 16th, Dr. Hunting, of Kalamazoo, will lecture in the First Baptist church. Subject, "My Boys and Girls." We have never heard more enthusiastic comments on any lecture, than on the one Dr. Hunting delivered here in the Presbyterian church. Some of our keenest and most inveterate critics, were for once satisfied. Dr. Hunting is genuinely eloquent, and is a man of fine literary acquirements. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents. Tickets at Chappell's.
